

LINCOLN LEGAL PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING
Minutes of April 27, 2017

The regular Board Meeting of Lincoln Legal Professionals Association was held on April 27, 2017, at Rembolt Ludtke with the following board members present: Tina Scully, Sandie Smith, Brooke Vass, Mary Douglas, Heather Leuschen, Lori Dymek, Lori McGowan, Carol Paige, Beth Christ.

Tina Scully called the meeting to order at 12:10 p.m.

Approval of Minutes:

The minutes from the March 23, 2017 meeting stand approved and will be printed in the LincolNotes.

Treasurer's Report:

The March financial report was reviewed and approved, and will be filed, subject to audit. It was brought to the attention of the board that there were some needed corrections to the Bosses' Night Banquet Report. The income amount was different in this report than in the Treasurer's report and the report should refer to Green Gateau rather than Nebraska Club expenses.

There were no expenses submitted for reimbursement.

Officer Reports:

Vice President: No report.

Chapter Representative: No report.

Committee Reports:

Program: Brooke Vass reported that Membership Meet and Greet is scheduled for May 11, 2017. No other information was reported on plans for this event.

Charitable: No Report. (Need Chair)

Fundraising: No Report. (Need Chair)

Bosses' Night: Lori Dymek submitted a written report that is attached to these minutes.

Legal Professional of the Year: Lori Dymek submitted a report that is attached to these minutes.

Boss of the Year: No official report. Tina reported that there is a dispute with Awards Unlimited on the size and price of the BOTY plaque. Tina indicated she would communicate with Alicia Hunt, who brought the dispute to her attention. If nothing can be resolved, the board agreed to pay the invoice received. The board gave KUDOS to Lori Dymek for a great event.

Courtesy: No report. Kathy Eidenmiller had sent a suggestion, through Tina Scully, to do away with the courtesy position. There was discussion about this and have Birthday's sent out on Facebook and the sympathy, get well and thank you cards to be sent out by the secretary. Heather Leuschen indicated she did not want to do that as she is the Facebook chair and that makes her job a lot more taxing. Mary Douglas voiced the same objections to this as secretary.

LincolNotes: Lori McGowan indicated she is waiting for the President's letter and Meet and Greet information to get the newsletter out to be posted to the website.

Scholarship: No report.

Nominations/Elections: No report.

Website: No report. There was some discussion about the membership application on the website. The application and website states the delinquent date for membership dues is May 1 and it should be June 1. Carol Paige looked at the LLPA By-Laws and it indicates they are delinquent June 1. Tina will communicate with Alicia about getting that changed on the website.

Historian/Media: No Report.

Facebook: No report.

Parliamentarian/Bylaws: No report.

Audit: No report.

Special Orders:

None.

Unfinished Business:

Tina went over the agenda for the convention set for April 28 – April 30, 2017.

Discussion was held about the Meet and Greet meeting scheduled for May 11, 2017. With only 2 weeks til that date, and with no report from VP, Tara Curtiss, Tina asked others to work on getting a speaker, arrange for food, and she would attempt to find a location for the event.

New Business:

Tina will work on a new list of program assignments to put in the newsletter.

Carol Paige is going to move at the next NLPA board meeting that they give each chapter a specific amount of funds each year for their membership recruitment.

Next Board Meeting:

The next board meeting will be June 1, 2017, at Baylor Evnen.

Adjournment:

At 1:05 p.m., the meeting was adjourned.

LINCOLN LEGAL PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING
Minutes of June 1, 2017 (May meeting)

The regular May Board Meeting of Lincoln Legal Professionals Association was held on June 1, 2017, at Baylor Evnen with the following board members present: Tina Scully, Sandie Smith, Kathy Eidenmiller, Brooke Vass, Lori Dymek, Carol Paige, Sheila Anderson, Alicia Hunt, and Vickie Starr

Tina Scully called the meeting to order at 12:08 p.m.

Approval of Minutes:

The minutes from the April meeting stand approved and will be printed in the LincolNotes.

Treasurer's Report:

The April and May financial reports were reviewed and approved, and will be filed, subject to audit.

There were no expenses submitted for reimbursement.

It was noted that we charge an extra $2.00 for people to pay when they submit their membership application online to cover the cost of the credit card fee. Pay Pal charges us 2.9% + a 30-cent fee per transaction.

Officer Reports:

Vice President: Tara Curtiss was unable to attend the meeting. Alicia Hunt reported that reminder emails have been sent to members who did not renew this year. It was reported we have 47 members. Of those, 14 are new members, 30 are renewals, 2 are students and 1 is honorary.

Chapter Representative: Sandie Smith reminded everyone our summer social is June 15, 2017. It is a tour of Robbers Cave, followed by dinner (optional) at Blue Blood Brewery. The cost is $10 per person for the cave tour.

Committee Reports:

Program: June is the summer social. Baylor Evnen is in charge of the July meeting.

Charitable: No Report. We need a chairperson for this committee

Fundraising: No Report. We need a chairperson for this committee.

Bosses' Night: No report.

Legal Professional of the Year: No report.

Boss of the Year: Kathy Eidenmiller reported that we did not get a refund from Awards Unlimited on our BOTY plaque.

Courtesy: No report. Need a chairperson.

LincolNotes: No report.

Scholarship: Sheila Anderson reported that she sent follow-up letters to all applicants. She wrote an announcement for the winner to post at their high school and college of choice. She will send $250 to Wesleyan September 1, 2017. She mailed out the donations on behalf of the judges. Sheila said she had an LLPA Student Member apply for the scholarship and wondered if they can do that. We reviewed the rules and found nothing that prevents one of our student members from applying for our scholarship.

Nominations/Elections: No report.

Website: No report.

Facebook: No report.

Parliamentarian/Bylaws: No report.

Audit: No report.

Special Orders:

None.

Unfinished Business:

Proposed Budget Special Meeting: Alicia Hunt had prepared a proposed budget which was discussed by the Board. Alicia will make changes per the suggestions from the Board.

Convention follow-up: Everyone had a good time and thought the speakers were good. We need to have more tickets available for the raffle next year.

New Business:

May membership meeting follow-up and new members.

Discussed sending Board Meeting agenda to all members to encourage them to attend and participate.

Next Board Meeting:

The next board meeting will be June 22, 2017, at Woods & Aitken at noon.

Adjournment:

At 1:10p.m., the meeting was adjourned.

Carol Paige, Acting Recording Secretary

LINCOLN LEGAL PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING
Minutes of June 22, 2017

The regular Board Meeting of Lincoln Legal Professionals Association was held on June 22, 2017, at Woods & Aitken law firm with the following board members present: Tina Scully, Sandie Smith, Kathy Eidenmiller (arrived while meeting in progress), Brooke Vass, Mary Douglas, Carol Paige, Sheila Anderson (arrived while meeting in progress), Alicia Hunt, Beth Christ, Rachel "Rae" Wulf Schmidt, and Morgan Meyers.

Tina Scully called the meeting to order at 12:01 p.m.

Approval of Minutes:

The minutes from the June 1, 2017 meeting stand approved and will be printed in the LincolNotes.

Treasurer's Report:

The June (May transactions) financial report was accepted at the June 1 meeting, subject to audit. Discussion was held regarding the $1,500 that was transferred from the LLPA savings account on May 5, 2017 to the LLPA checking account to cover convention charges. Also discussed was the payment from the LLPA checking account, as directed by Tina Scully, for $2,518.57 to the Hilton Garden Inn for the NLPA Convention on May 8, 2017. These expenses should have been submitted to the NLPA Treasurer and paid from NLPA accounts. NLPA has since reimbursed LLPA for those amounts and that will show on the July (June transactions) financial report. Also discussed was the $125 credit to the LLPA Scholarship account on May 4, 2017 (transferred from LLPA general checking account). On the proposed budget, that amount shows as $175. Also, the $21.52 debit from the LLPA scholarship account on April 25, 2017 (transferred from LLPA general checking account) shows as $71.52 on the proposed budget. Alicia will look in to those discrepancies and send out a corrected report.

There were no expenses submitted for reimbursement.

Officer Reports:

Vice President: Alicia Hunt reported for Tara Curtiss that we currently have 50 members, including new members, renewed members, student members and one honorary member. Alicia will e-mail a current member roster to the board.

Tina Scully asked about the proposed new brochure. She will e-mail Tara Curtiss for the final version so it can be distributed to the board for approval.

Chapter Representative: Sandie Smith reported that the NLPA Fall seminar will be on September 30, 2017 in Grand Island with a theme of "Keep Calm and Carry On". Spring seminar will be in Lincoln, with LLPA in charge, on March 17, 2018. This is St. Patrick's Day.

Sandie reported that NLPA held an EC meeting at Chances R in York on June 17, 2017. A proposed budget was presented and approved. LLPA is in charge of the NLPA audit committee since Alicia Hunt is the NLPA treasurer also.

Sandie reported that the LLPA Summer Social was held on June 15, 2017 at Robbers Cave and Blue Bloods Brewery. 18 people took the tour and others attended for dinner.

Committee Reports:

Program: Brooke Vass reported that July, 2017 program meeting is assigned to Baylor Evnen. It will be held on July 13, 2017 at US Bank conference room. Speaker will be Michelle Paxton from the UNL Law College about the Children's Justice Clinic. Raising Cane's will be served for lunch for approximately $5.

Brooke reported that the August program meeting is assigned to Workers Compensation Court and Mattson Ricketts. It is set for August 10, 2017 at US Bank conference room. The speaker and food are still being developed.

Brooke reported that September program meeting is assigned to Rembolt Ludtke and is set for September 14, 2017. It will most likely be held at Rembolt Ludtke law firm.

Charitable: No Report. Need chair for this position.

Fundraising: No Report. Brooke Vass and Beth Christ agreed to chair this committee and will try to get others to help. Kathy Eidenmiller indicated she would be willing to serve on this committee.

Bosses' Night: No Report.

Legal Professional of the Year: No Report.

Boss of the Year: No Report

Courtesy: Rachel "Rae" Wulf Schmidt has agreed to chair this committee. There was discussion and a decision made that birthday cards would no longer be sent by LLPA. However, Facebook birthday greetings should be sent to get LLPA's name out on social media. Tina will talk to Heather about giving Rae security to do that on Facebook.

LincolNotes: The next LincolNotes deadline is June 26, 2017.

Scholarship: Sheila Anderson had no report.

Nominations/Elections: Beth Christ. No report.

Website: Alicia Hunt reported that she had posted a link to an article regarding our May program speaker to the website, as well as pictures from the Blue Blood/Robbers Cave summer social.

Media: No Report.

Facebook: No Report. Comments were made that pictures from Blue Bloods/Robbers Cave Summer Social were on Facebook.

Parliamentarian/Bylaws: No Report.

Audit: No Report.

Special Orders:

None.

Unfinished Business:

None discussed.

New Business:

Alicia Hunt submitted a proposed budget for 2017-2018 year. Mary Douglas made a motion to accept the proposed budget and Carol Paige seconded the motion. The proposed budget was accepted. Alicia will send a final proposed budget out to the board.

Discussion was held about some e-mail issues that have been happening with officer e-mails on the website. It was decided that those personal e-mails would be removed from the website and give the general website e-mail address for people to contact us. Alicia can forward e-mails on to the appropriate person when they come in.

The annual golf scramble was discussed. After looking at Husker games dates, it was decided we would try to get it scheduled for September 9, 2017. Mary Douglas will call to reserve the course.

Next Board Meeting:

The next board meeting will be July 27, 2017, at Rembolt Ludtke.

Adjournment:

At 12:47 p.m., the meeting was adjourned.

Mary Douglas, Recording Secretary

LINCOLN LEGAL PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING
Minutes of July 27, 2017

The regular Board Meeting of Lincoln Legal Professionals Association was held on July 27, 2017, at Rembolt Ludtke law firm with the following board members present: Tina Scully, Sandie Smith, Brooke Vass, Mary Douglas, Lori McGowan (arrived while meeting in progress), Carol Paige, Alicia Hunt, Rae Wulf Schmidt, Beth Christ and guest, Jean Conrad.

Tina Scully called the meeting to order at 12:04 p.m.

Approval of Minutes:

The minutes from the June 22, 2017 meeting stand approved and will be printed in the LincolNotes.

Treasurer's Report:

The June financial report was reviewed and will be filed, subject to audit.

There were no expenses submitted for reimbursement.

Officer Reports:

Vice President: Tina Scully and Alicia Hunt reported we have 52 members. Tina passed out a new logo she had received from Alicia Hunt for the front of the new brochure. The board has not received the new text that was discussed several months ago. Tina will e-mail Tara and ask her for a proof of the new brochure with the updated logo and text.

Chapter Representative: Sandie Smith reported that the NLPA Fall seminar will be the last weekend in September, 2017 in Grand Island.

Committee Reports:

Program: August meeting notice has gone out. Program meeting is scheduled for August 10, 2017 at Wells Fargo 5th floor conference room, Zach Thompson – Ralph Mueller Planetarium "Total Eclipse of the Sun" to happen on August 21, 2017. Workers Compensation Court and Mattson Ricketts are in charge and lunch will be from Qdoba.

Charitable: No Report. NEED POSITION FILLED.

Fundraising: Brooke Vass and Beth Christ gave some ideas for fundraisers, which included vendor book parties, golf tournament, walk-a-thon, and Mother of All Garage Sales. There was a lot of discussion and it was decided to try to do a vendor (shopping) event with vendors giving a percentage of their profits to LLPA for the scholarship fund. Locations and times were discussed and Lori McGowan will contact Jennifer Amen regarding possibly having it at BarVino in mid-October. It was discussed that we have several members who have sales businesses that might be interested in being vendors. Brooke and Beth will reach out to members to see who they are and who is interested. It was also discussed that we should still do the letter campaign to law firms asking for donations to our scholarship fund. It was decided the end of September or beginning of October would be the best time for that letter to be sent. Alicia Hunt will pass that information on to Sheila Anderson. It was also decided that we should also still do raffle baskets at seminars as those always bring in some money.

Bosses' Night: No Report.

Legal Professional of the Year: No Report

Boss of the Year: No Report

The July financial report was reviewed and accepted, and will be filed, subject to audit.

There were no expenses submitted for reimbursement.

Officer Reports:

Vice President: Alicia Hunt reported on behalf of Tara Curtiss that we have 52 members. Tina Scully reported that Tara Curtiss has not responded to her e-mails regarding the LLPA brochure or the new member contacts. Kathy Eidenmiller agreed to call Tara and discuss these things with her.

Chapter Representative: No report.

Committee Reports:

Program: Tina Scully reported for Brooke Vass. The September program meeting will be September 14, 2017 at noon at Rembolt Ludtke Law Firm. The speaker will be Ryan Gross, Director of Communications and Creative Design of the Expansion of the Lincoln Children's Zoo. A zoo animal will be present. The lunch will be a baked potato bar from Phat Jax for $8.50 each. Rembolt Ludtke will supply drinks. The October meeting will be arranged by Woods & Aitken and student members.

Charitable: A chair person is needed for this position. Tina Scully indicated we need to make a decision regarding our charitable project soon. Carol Paige will ask members in her office if they would be willing to do it. Mary Douglas is to e-mail the list of charitable options to Carol.

Fundraising: Tina Scully reported for Brooke Vass that the vender event will be held on October 5, 2017 at Barvino starting at 5:30 p.m. She has 5 – 7 vendors. It was suggested she e-mail the membership to see if there are other members that sell things that would want to be involved. It was also indicated that there needs to be a flyer done ASAP for the newsletter that will be completed early next week.

Bosses' Night: Lori Dymek reported she is going to contact Windsor Stables again as a venue. Dates were checked to avoid the Lincoln Bar Association annual meeting. It was decided to hold our Bosses Night on April 5, 2018 to avoid conflict with the Bar meeting.

Legal Professional of the Year: No Report.

Boss of the Year: No Report

Courtesy: Tina Scully reported for Rae Wulf Schmidt that she sent a retirement card to Connie Frazier and a Thank You to our last speaker, Zach Thompson.

LincolnNotes: Lori McGowan indicated she is waiting for a few things for the newsletter. The LincolnNotes deadline August 25, 2017.

Scholarship: Alicia Hunt reported that the first half of the scholarship was paid out on August 10, 2017 for $250.00. Alicia also indicated that she relayed the board message to Sheila Anderson that we would like the letter campaign to the law firms to raise scholarship money to go out in late September or early October.

Unfinished Business:

Golf Scramble flyers have been e-mailed to members and are in the newsletter. Mary Douglas asked if anyone had any small items to be used for duck prizes at the event. It was agreed that Mary could e-mail the membership to see if anyone had anything to donate. Tina Scully had left over notebooks from the convention, Yogurtini cards and Baylor T-shirts. Lori McGowan indicated that she might have some items also.

New Business:

Tina Scully opened a discussion regarding changing the venue of the holiday party. Some discussion was held and Mary Douglas offered to contact Deb and Art Thompson to see if they would be interested in having it at their house again as they have offered previously. It was decided we would like to have it on December 14, 2017 or if that is not convenient for the Thompson's whatever date works for them.

Next Board Meeting:

The next board meeting will be September 28, 2017, at Woods & Aitken.
